

L'histoire du Pastis

This famous drink started with Absinthe in 1770 which was born between Jura and Switzerland. The first distillery started in 1805 at Pontarlier by Henri Louis Pernod. La Fée Verte (The Green Fairy) became very popular with the students of the Quartier Latin and the artistic community. Writers such as Baudelaire, Rimbaud, Verlaine and painters like Gauguin, Monet, Van Gogh and Toulouse Lautrec drew their inspiration from it. The popular Thuyone or Wormwood, the essence of Absinthe, was prohibited in 1915. Paul Ricard invented Ale Pastis de Marseilles in 1932, made of Star Anise, Licorice and Caramel, it was banned again between 1938 & 1951. Now Pastis is the most popular aperitif in France with over 80 different brands and 20 million glasses served daily.

We invite you to experiment with this unique drink and its many flavours. We offer 5 different types of Pastis: the regular such as Ricard or Pastis 51, the cocktail style with almond syrup or mint, the herbal Pastis made from the maceration of different herbs, the Pastis made with anise only, and the famous Absinthe. Ask your host to select your perfect Pastis. À votre santé!!!
